NARRATIVE	1 On March 14 2020 at 0700 hours I was assigned to conduct a follow up investigation into an incident which 2 occurred the previous evening, at approximately 1850 hours, at Cutter Aviation, located at 2502 Clark Carr 3 LP. SE. Upon arrival I contacted [REDACTED]. She advised that at approximately 1850 hours 4 she was at the reception desk when she observed a male subject wearing a full military uniform walk into 5 the business. She advised that he appeared nervous and anxious as he stood back away from the reception 6 desk. She asked him if she could be of any assistance to him, and his response to her was that he was 7 there to pick up Corona Virus patients. She advised him that they did not have any patients, and she had not 8 been advised of any transfer of patients, She said he persisted, stating he was under "military orders" to pick 9 up these Corona Virus patients. She advised that she did not see nor did he offer any documentation as to 10 his claims. She advised him that she would check with her manager and turned away for a moment. and the 11 subject quickly walked out of the building without stating anything further. [REDACTED] advised that she 12 found the entire incident suspicious and peculiar, first of all because they would not have had a patient 13 transfer of that type without prior planning and coordination. And secondly, due the subject's demeanor and 14 not having additional personnel with him to carry out such an operation. I then asked [REDACTED] if she 15 noticed the individual in question to be armed, she stated she did not see any weapons. I asked her if the 16 individual became aggressive or threatening, she stated he did not. Finally I provided a known photograph 17 of Subject Charles Brent Justice for her to view, and she positively identified it as being the person whom 18 she spoke about in our conversation Sergeant Barnard, from Criminal intelligence Unit was contacted, and 19 a copy of this report will be forwarded to him.
